DISCIPLESHIP AND EDUCATION AT AHUMC

A Place of Belonging for All

If our goal as disciples is to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, community is not optional. We come from relationship, and as followers of the Christ, we are called to relationships of ever-increasing acceptance, grace, and love.

In community, we share our sorrow and our joy, we give and receive encouragement, and we find support and direction. At AHUMC, we are drawn together in our common purpose to welcome all people, build community, share God's love, and serve the world. Whether through community meals and gatherings, courses and study groups, or worshiping or serving together, we recognize that we are connected. We need one another.

AHUMC is committed to offering a wide array of opportunities for the education, encouragement, and equipping of disciples. The number of studies and groups that are available to our community can even be a little overwhelming—so please let us help!

Below you will find a summary of the connectional and developmental opportunities AHUMC is offering this spring. If you have any questions, need further information, or would like help gathering resources for a study or meeting you would like to host, please let us know.

Peace,

Rev. Dr. Darrell Smith

WINTER/SPRING 2025 EVENTS

Chili Cook-Off & Cornhole Tournament

Sunday, 12 p.m. in the Christian Life Center (CLC)

January 19, 2025

Join us for our third annual Chili Cook-Off & Cornhole Tournament hosted by our Youth Ministry! The cook-off will be a great event for the family, with something fun for everyone. There's space to participate in the cook-off competition, cornhole tournament, or just the tasting! Competition participants must register by 1/15! Visit ahumc.org/chili for more information.

Nerf & Nachos

Sunday, 6-8 p.m. in the AHUMC west parking lot

January 24, 2025

Bring your Nerf guns, safety goggles, and camo, and join us for Nerf and Nachos—a fun, FREE event sponsored by our Children's, Youth, and Music ministries. This event will be in the Christian Life Center (CLC) from 6 to 8 p.m. All 2nd to 5th graders can participate. Youth helpers will be present to help run the event. We will provide the Nerf darts and have extra Nerf guns and safety goggles. Nachos will be on the menu for dinner. Register at ahumc.org/nerf

Membership Sunday / Lunch with the Staff

Sunday at 12:15 p.m. in the Christian Life Center (CLC)

February 23, 2025

Leaders: AHUMC Staff + Pastors

If your home is your “first place,” and where you work is your “second place,” we want AHUMC to be your “third place.” Whether you are a new member, interested in joining the church, or just want to find out more about our community, we hope that you will join the pastors and staff for lunch and a time of introduction to AHUMC. Our pastors will lead this dialogue around the UMC and some specifics about our church and its ministries. Children's lunches will be available, and childcare is available by reservation. Register at ahumc.org/lunch

WINTER/SPRING 2025 COURSES

AHUMC offers a number of different staff-led courses throughout the week. All of our courses are available for free to anyone who is interested. The only exception being that a few of the courses do require the purchase of a book—and even that shouldn't be an obstacle to participation as scholarship assistance is available. We hope you will consider joining at least one of the courses listed below.

SUNDAY MORNING

Common Space: A 9:30 a.m. Sunday Morning Dialogue

Sundays at 9:30 a.m. in the Garden Chapel | Beginning January 26, 2025

Leaders: Pastors Chris Estus and Darrell Smith

Join us in the Garden Chapel at 9:30 a.m. for a weekly dialogue and exploration of the biblical stories—both the ones you know and love and the ones that seem to confound and confuse. This is not a lecture or a book study. There is no homework or assigned reading. Through active and participatory conversation, we will get to know each other and learn together as we wrestle with the questions that exist on the tips of our tongues and in the depths of our hearts.

Common Space: An 11 a.m. Sunday Morning Dialogue

Sundays at 11 a.m. in W100-101 (the Seminar Room) | Resuming January 12, 2025

Leaders: Pastors Chris Estus, Reed McNitzky, and Darrell Smith

Join us in the Seminar Room at 11 a.m. for a weekly dialogue and exploration of the biblical stories—both the ones you know and love and the ones that seem to confound and confuse. This is not a lecture or a book study. There is no homework or assigned reading. Through active and participatory conversation, we will get to know each other and learn together as we wrestle with the questions that exist on the tips of our tongues and in the depths of our hearts.

MONDAY AFTERNOON

The Good and Beautiful You

Mondays at 12 p.m. | AHUMC Parlor | Zoom | Beginning January 27, 2025

Leaders: Jason Adams and Janet Weatherston

The Christian faith is not only about belief and practices, it is also about the kind of people that we become. Yet some of the biggest barriers to our transformation come from our toxic self-narratives. These narratives shape the way we see ourselves and the way we interact in the world. God designed us with a deep longing in our souls to be wanted, loved, alive, and connected to God. Healing our souls requires more than knowing what God thinks about us. Our healing comes not through reason alone, but through revelation.

*Using James Bryan Smith's book The Good and Beautiful You, Senior Pastor Jason Adams and Outreach Pastor Janet Weatherston we will guide this dialogue that addresses the self-narratives that hinder spiritual growth and the desires of the soul that only God can satisfy.*

Lunch is available for purchase from Chefs Colin Bryant and Kaitlin Workman of Mission Bell.

TUESDAY MORNING

John: A Beginner's Guide to the Way, the Truth, and the Life

Tuesdays at 10 a.m. W100 (Seminar Room) | Zoom | Beginning: January 14, 2025

Leader: Pastor Donna Strieb

John's Gospel offers reader a new language—of being born anew, of living water, of wind and spirit, of the "I Am"—that enhances how we understand the divine, how we experience the world, and how we participate in the mystery of faith. Pastor Donna Strieb will lead this exploration of the world of the Gospel of John by unpacking the stories in their original context, along with examining how the text is read today.

TUESDAY EVENING

Women's Ministry: The New Happy

Tuesdays at 6 p.m. AHUMC Parlor | Beginning: January 21, 2025

Leader: Priscilla MacDougall

We all want to be happy, but happiness always seems to be out of reach. It's not your fault if you are unhappy. You have been told three lies: you're not good enough; you need to achieve fame, wealth, and power; and you need to do it all on your own. This is Old Happy, our society's false definition of happiness, and it's making us miserable.

Join Rev. Priscilla MacDougall for this journey toward truth: you are enough, you have unique and important gifts, and using them to help other people leads to your happiness.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Men's Ministry: The Scandal of the Kingdom

Wednesdays at 12 p.m. Parlor | Beginning: January 22, 2025

Leader: Johnny Boyd

The teachings of Jesus recorded in the Bible include subversive messages embedded within seemingly simple stories, urging us to break free from the grip of worldly values and embrace something much more life-giving.

*Join Johnny Boyd for this weekly lunchtime dialogue around Dallas Willard's book The Scandal of the Kingdom. We will follow along together as Willard illuminates the timeless wisdom contained within each parable, revealing their profound relevance to contemporary life.*

Bring your lunch or purchase one in the Atrium from Chefs Colin Bryant and Kaitlin Workman of Mission Bell.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

For each of our Wednesday evening courses, childcare is available by reservation.

Vintage Saints and Sinners: A Podcast Course

Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. AHUMC Parlor | Beginning: January 22, 2025

Leader: Pastor Reed McNitzky

Have you ever felt frustrated, overwhelmed, or confused by the invitation to “live a holy life” in the context of your own life? Have you ever wondered what Christianity has to do with your to-do lists, responsibilities, and daily routines?

Join Pastor Reed McNitzky on Wednesday evenings as we discuss the complicated and consecrated legacies of people recognized by the Church as saintly figures. By looking to them and learning from these people, we discover how God is working in us right now, as we are.

We will use the Vintage Saints & Sinners podcast as the main basis for dialogue, but the book Vintage Saints and Sinners by Karen Wright Marsh can be purchased as an additional resource.

Community Yoga: Flow & Restore

Wednesdays at 6 p.m. CLC (Christian Life Center) | Beginning: January 29, 2025

Leader: Dave Williams

Whether you have practiced yoga for years or are looking to try something new, join us for this free weekly hour with Yoga Alliance-licensed instructor, Dave Williams.

Beginning January 29, we will meet for 6 weeks of warm-up, restorative flow, and cool down in the CLC at AHUMC. The space is carpeted so please feel free to bring your own mat or towel and a water bottle.
